

STABILIZATION SYMPOSIUM

JUNE 26-27, 2018 JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY SAIS, WASHINGTON, DC

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Over two days in June 2018, the Stabilization Symposium will delve into how we apply a single definition of stability across the USG and its partners, how we can coordinate with our allies, multilaterals, and other donors, and how we implement effective stabilization activities. Leveraging the new USG definition of stabilization from the Interagency Stabilization Assistance Review, we will examine opportunities to innovate stabilization solutions to violent conflicts.

The Stabilization Symposium offers partners a unique opportunity to demonstrate leadership in the field and to engage directly with peers, potential partners, clients, donors, and policy makers.
